

I absolutely hate being called at home by telemarketers. If I'm interested in a product I will call someone to ask or go to a store or the internet to get it. I do not want to be hassled at home. Please do something about it. I would love to be on a list that says I don't want the calls.